

Character in Action

Creative Writing I

- You have, by this time, created a character. Take your Character Profile and create a one-page story involving your character. (If typed: one-page, 12-pt. font, double-spaced. If handwritten: one page, no skipping lines)
- Consider this a teaser story. You want to make the story short, but engaging, so that I am drawn to want to read more about your character. That's how you sell the sequels!
- Whether typed or handwritten, you will need to turn in a hard copy of the story.
